

On June 6, 2013 Alabama Senate Bill 340 was signed into law, reforming the state's Medicaid system to operate under a managed care structure instead of its previous fee-for-service model. By October 2016, Alabama Medicaid intends to enter into contracts with a network of five regional managed care organizations (RCOs) that will receive a capitated payment to cover all acute, behavioral, pharmacy, and long-term (post-acute/rehab) care services for about 800,000 of the state's 930,000 Medicaid beneficiaries...
