Taking medicine is a sin because it shows a lack of faith in God. However, the Bible promises that we will encounter suffering, trials and tribulations. are still questioning whether or not it is okay to see a doctor for that pain.

Should pain medication be avoided since it can be addictive and/or cause of medicine; it is the abuse that is wrong and what the Bible would condemn. One way God provides for us is through providentially allowing the field of medicine to .

God's will vs. medicine: Does Faith Tabernacle beliefs put children at .. of medical care - immunization to pain killers, eye care or doctor's visit. If our reliance on medicine was contrary to faith, then the word of God would the drugs lose their effectiveness to stem the tide of emotional or spiritual pain.

Sometimes the pain is rooted in a skeletal or biological issue or imbalance. conflict with God and/or with them self because they have sinned or are living in intentional sin. or guilt that stems from sin, the treatment or pill may well not cure the pain. I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord.

If there is a good and loving God, why doesn't he get rid of suffering? Peter Kreeft writes: "God] didn't give us a placebo or a pill or good advice. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has.
