Teresa de Los Andes (-) is the first Chilean and the first Discalced a saint, had an enormous influence on her early life and her own letters from that. Saint Teresa of the Andes () Santa-Teresa-de-los-AndesA-los- What took place between my soul and Jesus is something indescribable. I asked I wish they would reduce the boarding school to a heap of ashes.â€• â€“Letter. St Teresa of the Andes died on 12th April . I can say that my life is a continuous prayer, for everything I do I do it out out of love for my Jesus (Letter 52). Before I conclude, I think it necessary to mention, that St. Teresa never spells her name with an h: it is always Teresa de Jesus. The French translators, however. Saint Teresa of Jesus of Los Andes (13 July â€“ 12 April) - born as Juana Fernandez In September she sent a letter to the prioress of the Discalced Carmelite convent close to her home expressing her desire to enter the order. â€œAll the sacrifices we make are small in comparison with the value of just one soul . God gave His life for them and for us. How careless we are about His. When she was 17, she read Saint Teresa of Jesus, which moved her to live her prayer They are letters written with a great deal of affection and understanding.
