

Secrets of Kindle Publishing is a comprehensive guide to publishing a best-selling Kindle eBook. It is no secret that eBooks now regularly outsell printed books, and that trend keeps getting stronger and stronger. With the unprecedented surge in people buying eBook readers such as the Kindle, the Nook, and even the iPad in recent years, has completely annihilated the barriers to book publishing! Now anyone can publish a book with just a few simple clicks of a mouse that can sell hundreds and even thousands of copies nearly effortlessly. However, these are just the theory. By mere publishing of eBooks on any platform will never get you money or fame until and unless you are able to make the readers buy your eBook, and get likes and good reviews. The author knows what works and what does not, and is going to share all the secrets with you all today! There are lot of eBooks written by the author under several different pen names and different publishers. This is not a book about writing. It is not a style guide or a book grammar (though it will touch on grammar and style just a lit bit). What the author is going to teach you is how to publish a book for Kindle through Amazons system, how to promote it, and how to sell many as possible. How to choose a book topic. what software to use when writing your book. How long your book should be. How to create or purchase a cover for your book. How to pick a cover that SELLS a lot.
