

This play for children aged from seven to eleven. The plays design incorporates valuable lessons on friendship, trust, and self love within a stage play. The plays storyline is innocent, and has a happy ending. There are ten child acting roles, which compose of a star, three yellow ducklings, a blue duckling, an angel, two girls, and one boy. This is a story about a bald angel, a blue duckling, and a naughty joke playing star. The plays design is for low cost scenes and could be put on in the classroom. Included are teacher italics for the drama stage professional. There are three easy scenes and five small acts.
